Dear Sirs,

Rick Shortle

I have known Rick for many years both as a personal friend and sponsor in his motor racing activities. He has boundless enthusiasm, is very interactive with sponsors and takes on challenges head on and strives to succeed in all he does.

If you have read his autobiography, highly recommended, you will see that he has recovered from adversity in both his personal and racing life several times. He sustained major injuries, in a road traffic accident and in speedway, and got fixed up, dusted himself down and started all over again, quickly returning to winning form.

I would not hesitate to recommend him to anybody to support him in his latest racing endeavours for which you will be rewarded many times over by the friendship and enjoyment that you will receive in return,

Yours sincerely
